Use Parisian Sage—It Makes Your Hair Soft and Fluffy, Surely Stops Itching Head

When your hair is losing color, too dry, brittle, thin, or the scalp itches, you should immediately begin the use of Parisian Sage. The first application removes all dandruff, invigorates the scalp, and beautifies your hair until it is gloriously radiant.

Parisian Sage supplies all hair needs at an entertainment which the club has and contains the exact elements needed planned for the near future it hopes to to make your hair soft, wavy, glossy, and to make it grow long, thick and beautiful. It is delicately perfumed— not expensive, and can be had from the Red Cross Pharmacy, or any drug coun-

Parisian Sage acts instantly-one application stops the head from itching and freshens up the hair. You will be delighted with this helpful toilet necesfor nothing else is so good for hair, or so quickly gives it that enviable charm and fascination .- Advt.

Claims Failure to Divide Profits.

Papers have been filed with County Clerk H. A. Harman in a Rutland coun- is to make his headquarters in Brattlety suit in which Jesse D. Billings of Rutland sues John Dailey of Pittsford to recover $1000 on a book account. Lawrence, Lawrence & Stafford are counsel for the plaintiff and T. W. Moloney represents the defendant. The plaintiff asthe defendant in conducting a farming business at Pittsford from March 1, 1912 to November 1, 1914; that during this time Mr. Dailey received from the business $1000 above his own share of the profits and that, although frequently urged to do so, he has failed to divide ter than for several seasons past. Rutland Man Loses Mill

A fire in Tinmouth last Monday night totally destroyed the saw mill, owned by Elmer Bissell of Rutland. The mili cents. was a wooden structure, erected last summer. Some lumber went up in the flames with the building and machinery was damaged. It is said that the loss will be about $1,000. There was no insurance. No one knows haw the fire was started, but there is suspicion that it was of incendiary origin, as there was giving day they drove 12 miles to the no fire under the engine the previous night, yet the building was discovered to be in flames at 4:30 o'clock in the morning. Eight men were employed at the mill. It probably will not be rebuilt Cray Was Not Present When State Comas it was not intended to operate it for a long perico.
